MR. TAULBEE EXHONORATED.

E. L. Noble Says Mr. Taulbee Is Wrongfully Accused.

Since the nomination of S. S. Taulbee for County Judge, his enemies and opponents have been industriously circulating through-out the county reports charging that Mr. Taulbee was a party to the fraud perpetrated on candidates opposed to the Democrats for the county offices at the November election four years ago, in changing the ballots after they were returned to the clerk's office.

I was Deputy County Court Clerk under S. S. Taulbee and had full charge of the office at the time that Mr. Taulbee is accused of the crime, and in justice to Mr. Taulbee and in the interest of right and truth, I desire to make a partial statement relative to this matter, so that the wrong may fall on the guilty.

In the first place, there was a steal, and the ballots changed, but Taulbee knew nothing of the transaction, and had nothing whatever to do with it. He would never have known if the parties who perpetrated the fraud and made the steal had not accused an innocent man.

THE PRIME MOVER OF THIS FRAUD NOW HEADS THE SO-CALLED DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

I served as Deputy Clerk under S. S. Taulbee for a number of years, and during all that time he always conducted wrong and fraud in politics, and never advised, encouraged, or aided in political turpitude or official corruption. I have always found him to be a man of sterling integrity, true to his trust, and honorable in public and private life.

The statements contained herein I will verify under oath.

E. L. NOBLE.

THE MARE'S NEST.

The mare's nest, discovered by the Midnight ticket, and which they have been circulating against Sewell Taulbee, about the fraud committed in the county election four years ago, is explained by a card from E. L. Noble in this issue of THE NEWS.

This gives some idea of the tactics of the chairman of the Tenth Congressional District and present acting County Judge. Not being satisfied with seducing S. S. Taulbee's trusted employee, and defrauding candidates duly elected by the people to the different offices, he attempts to malign an innocent man, by creating the impression that the steal was made by his opponent, while Mr. Noble says in his card it was conceived in the brain and brought forth under the guiding hand of the "head of the so-called Democratic ticket."

He has the audacity to say to the good citizens of Breathitt county that S. S. Taulbee, on account of this fraud, is not worthy of their support, and asks that you vote for him for County Judge. Such gall! Commit a crime and charge an innocent man with it, and at the same time declare that no man is worthy of trust who did it. Yet he wants your vote.

Nero fiddled while Rome was burning. We have officers who are reported to have laughed while high felonies were committed in their presence.

We have officers who spend the people's money in extravagant salaries. Verily, we believe they would do this at the cost of the bread from your children's mouths. And this is not all. The people's money is wasted in many ways, on political pets, and in pay for corruption, such as no people have never before been cursed with in a civilized country.

Now, which of the two men is most worthy of your support? Sewell Taulbee stands vindicated of the charge brought against him by Jim Hargis, and the card of Mr. Noble alleges that Jim Hargis was the prime mover of the fraud. Jim Hargis says that a man who is guilty of such fraud is not worthy of your support and we agree with him. Jim Hargis has brought forth no evidence that Sewell Taulbee is guilty. E. L. Noble, who had charge of the Clerk's office, says Taulbee is innocent and that Hargis is guilty. Choose ye.

A CARD FROM TOM CENTERS.

To My Friends and Fellow-Men of Breathitt County:
I stand in this county as a candidate for Jailor, and I respectfully request of the people to assist me if possible in procuring the office. Owing to existing circumstances the people of this county should take in consideration the way I was wrongfully confined in the jail, chiefly, because I am electioneering in the interests of myself for jailor, and, people, don't all of you think that I have a perfect right to do so, as I am a citizen of the county. Understand, fellow-men, that the county authorities did not have all to do with it. One of my relatives was an instigator in the proposition.

While I am now in prison the people shall see sometime that I am not confined. Now, fellow-men, judge the matter according to your own feelings and give me an opportunity. Very respectfully,
THOMAS CENTERS.
Candidate for Jailor.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

To the Voters of Magisterial District No. 1, Breathitt County:
After continuous solicitations by my many friends, I have been induced to announce myself a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace for said district. I am quite sure all or most of you have met me either socially or in business transaction, which is sufficient for you to judge of my ability to serve you if elected. Therefore, I most earnestly solicit your support. Yours very truly,
H. F. DAVIS.

PLATFORM ADOPTED.

By the People of Breathitt County in Convention Assembled.

We, the citizens of Breathitt county, in convention assembled regardless of previous political affiliations, but with an eye single to the redemption of Breathitt county, hereby make the following declarations of principles:

"Resolved, First—That we approve the call, time and place for holding this convention.

"Second—That we believe in a free ballot and a fair count, an honest and economical administration of county affairs, equal rights to all and exclusive privileges to none, a fair deal to every man, and the redemption of Breathitt county from the misrule it has had for the past four years.

"Third—We believe that the power of the people should be supreme; that they should have a right to govern themselves, and that they should have a voice in the selection of their officers.

"Fourth—We believe in a wise and economical administration of the fiscal affairs of the county, that no more taxes should be collected than is necessary for the conduct of the government, economically administered; that unnecessary taxation is unjust taxation; that the present tax rate is exorbitant, outrageous and unjust, and should be reduced at least one-half.

"Fifth—We denounce the present county administration for its utter disregard for law and precedent; we have seen our leading citizens shot down on the streets of Jackson, and instead of the so-called officers of the law making any attempt to apprehend the murderers, they rushed to the defense of those accused of the crimes; and we condemn the foul assassinations of Dr. B. D. Cox, James Cockrill and James B. Marcum, and point with horror and scorn at those officials who quietly stood by while the victims were weltering in their own blood, without so much as raising a finger towards rendering them aid in their dying agonies, and feel assured that the time has come when the hands of the citizens of this blood-stained county to call a halt and place a ticket before the people to be voted for at the November election, which, if elected, can and will say that the law must be respected and rigidly enforced.

"Sixth—We have seen our paupers denied the support that is due them, and the money that should have been spent for their comfort given to men in compensation for their political turpitude.

"Seventh—We have seen our voting places so changed that it is almost impossible for some of our citizens to go to the voting places to cast their ballot. We believe that the voting places should be as near the center of the voting precincts as practicable, and easily accessible to all the voters therein.

"Eighth—We believe that the Jackson Bridge should remain in the hands of the Fiscal Court, and that the money collected should be used in paying off the debt created by building it, and we are opposed to the squandering of the money on high salaries and other extravagances.

"Ninth—We believe that the jury service should be distributed among the citizens of all parts of the county, and that no political favoritism should be exercised in their selection.

"Tenth—We believe that the contracts for the public works of the county should be awarded according to law to the lowest and best bidder, and not let to certain individuals privately for pecuniary or political favors at the expense of the county.

"Eleventh—We believe that the laborer is worthy of his hire, and that the finances of Breathitt county should be put on a cash basis, and not compel claimants to wait two years or more for their money, or compel them to discount their claims in some store for merchandise at a large profit to the merchant.

"Twelfth—That we honor and applaud Henry B. Noble, the present County Superintendent, for his honest and faithful endeavor to uphold the law in the administration of his official duties, and in the brave and patriotic stand he took in protecting his office from being taken from the hands of the man the people had elected.

"Thirteenth—We pledge ourselves and our candidates to work for the reforms needed and place Breathitt county on the high plane she should occupy, so that capitalists and others can come here and invest their money and develop our mineral and timber resources and feel that they have perfect protection to their lives and property; and, further, we endorse the candidates nominated here today as the Republican nominees for the respective offices for Breathitt county, and their names be placed under the Republican device, to wit: a log cabin.

"Fourteenth—We earnestly solicit any and all of the papers of the State, regardless of their present or past political affiliations, to publish these declarations of principles.

J. B. McLIN, Chairman.
HENRY C. HURST, Secretary.

ROYAL WOMEN GAMBLERS.
Marie Antoinette was a slave to cards. On one occasion she played for thirty-six hours at a sitting, with but an intermission of a couple of hours.

The play at the queen's table at "Pleasantland," wrote the Emperor Joseph II., "was like that in a common gambling house—people of all kinds were there and mingled without decorum. Great scandal was caused by the fact that several of the ladies cheated."

Anne Boleyn, Henry VIII's ill-fated queen, was never quite so happy as when playing for high stakes. The records of privy purse expenses are full of her winnings from her royal spouse, for she was a lucky player.—Chicago Journal.

THE KUKLUX KLAN RITUAL.
That a copy of the Kuklux Klan ritual are known to exist is the statement of Thomas Dixon in the Metropolitan. One of them, he says, is in the library of Columbia college; the other is among the archives of Tennessee. It was the composition of General George W. Gordon of Memphis, and it began thus:

"This is an institution of chivalry, humanity, mercy and patriotism, embodying in its genius and its principles all that is chivalric in conduct, noble in sentiment, generous in manhood and patriotic in purpose."

THROWING THE DART IN COCK HARBOR.
The ancient civic ceremony known as throwing the dart is performed every third year, and it survives only in Cork. Proceeding to the mouth of the harbor, the lord mayor casts a silver dart into the sea and as he does so proclaims his jurisdiction as admiral of the port over the harbor and all its inlets and creeks. The naval authorities look on with reverence, the ceremony having long ago lost its ancient significance. Throwing the dart is now merely the occasion for a civic outing.—London Mail.

HE TOLD HER WHY.
Peckem—I have been asked to join the Married Men's Club, my dear Mrs. Peckem—indeed! And what do married men want a club for, pray? Peckem—Why, misery loves company, you know.—Chicago News.

Most Americans eat too fast and too much, but the grocer and the butcher aren't the ones that are calling attention to the evil.—Somerville Journal.

EDITOR NEWS:

Taxation is a question that deeply stirs the minds of every people and fires the soul of every patriotic citizen to immediate action.
Every honest citizen delights in paying an honest and equal tax,
tax adequate to the public expense,
when economically administered,
but no individual is willing to see his substance wasted by an unjust and slothful servant nor is he willing, nor will he support him in an extravagant expenditure of his goods, but will soon disown him from his service and seek a more just steward, who will have a due regard for his master's property and try to preserve it and endeavor to increase it in a just way, instead of wasting the substance entrusted to his care to satisfy his own avarice. Yet the master is willing for a just portion of his goods to be given to meet the lawful demands of his creditors and the necessary expense of the servant, which arises from the administration of such affairs—but in no wise willing for his goods to be appropriated to the servant's personal expenses arising from the administration of the master's affairs. So is it with the citizens of a free government, they delight in paying the public officers for their services to the government and placing in their hands sums necessary to meet all the just demands against the government and to pay all the necessary expenses which arise from a just and equal administration of the laws and in building and preserving the public's property. The history of the present administration is that of a val-luptuary, a servant slothful in his master's business. The just demands of the public are not met;
the current expenses are not paid;
the citizens who rendered the county service in 1904 are forced to wait for their pay until 1906, with only a promise to pay, a draft drawn on the individual's own property and due from his own purse, only a basis to increase his taxes and administer upon his personal rights.

The money which has been collected to meet the public dues and current expenses of the county government, has been given to some favorite of the administration, to the financial embarrassment and public disgrace of the county.

Every just government is founded with a view to the relief and protection of the poor and weak against the strong and rich, but free from the idea of robbing the rich and giving to the poor, or from forcing the poor to serve the will of the rich; founded on the common needs of humanity, supported by the ties of nature. Charity, then, pure love, is the mother of true government, the administration of human sympathy. But such has been far from the view of the present administration. The money due the paupers of our county has been given to undeserving men, almost inhuman, who have no sympathy with suffering humanity; who think poverty a crime; who see no value in humanity unless they can exchange it for a price.

Humanity, in itself, is ever the same. Then if a rich man loves his father and mother, brother or sister, so does a poor man love his, only more, from the fact that he is afflicted with their poverty, which is more deeply fixed in the seat of human affection than the enjoyment of luxurious pomp and pleasure. To a mother, bending with age under the cares of life, a crust
of bread, at the fireside of her son, with her grandchildren about her knee, would taste sweeter than all the luxuries of life, if bestowed on her in the poor-house, away from her children and friends. Then, is it not better and more Godlike to let the superannuated and infirm fathers and mothers, brothers and sisters, rest beneath the roof they love, and enjoy the care and protection of those who love whole?

Fellow citizens, poverty is not a crime, neither will riches always abide. The children who play about the door of the richest man may in the end be subject to extreme poverty and be a pensioner on the county and become truly an object of charity; so the boy whose ancestors may have been a county charge, may become a man of richest dowry. This is the history of men; the rich may fall, the poor may rise. Then should not the common ties of humanity be alike to all, and all men expect to know the common lot of man.

The present county judge and so-called nominees to succeed himself at the approaching election, instead of caring for our worthy poor, which is the noblest action that can be taken by men or officers, as had been the policy previously followed, for some reason of his own, chose to have a "poorhouse" to which to send those sloshed heavily by the hand of infirmity, and then let it (the said house) out, or allowed it to be conducted, and run according to the sweet will of those who are his henchmen, and who hesitate not to profit by the misfortunes of others.
Men who will not help the poor,
their own good and to line their own pockets with the money intended for and deserved by the poor of our county.

The "fusion" ticket, if elected,
will favor going back to the rule laid down and followed by previous administrations, under the guidance of the County Judges, and will endeavor to care for the worthy poor in a modest and economical way, so as not to humiliate the first and tax or burden the last named class, aimed at both parties at interest. Let us fight to preserve our homes, farms and properties from the tax gatherers, who are squandering large sums in worse than useless ways.

At the Democratic convention held at the court house last Saturday, Henry D. Back was nominated for Justice of the Peace. J. E. Lang was a prospective candidate, but did not allow his name to go before the convention. A special train was run from Robbins to accommodate those who wanted to attend from that place.

A picture of a rooster will not be a sufficient excuse to your wife and children for indorsing all the fraud and crime that has been committed in this county during the past four years. You will either condemn or indorse same by your vote at this election. "As you make your bed, so you will have to lie."

There are two county tickets in the field to be voted for at the November election. The election of one means the salvation of the county; the other its destruction. If anyone has any doubt about the truth of this statement, he has only to come to the County Clerk's office and examine the records of the county and fiscal courts for the past four years. Come and take a look.

THE GANG ON THE RUN.

The Fiscal Court Met, But Having No Funds Available to Pay Claims, Adjourned Until After the Election.

BUT THEY CAN'T FOOE THE PEOPLE.

The fiscal court met last Tuesday and adjourned without attending to any of the fiscal business of the county, or without allowing a single claim, or caring for the paupers, or doing anything for the county, except making a preliminary order about a bridge at the mouth of Lost Creek.

They adjourned in direct violation of law. See section 1838 of the Kentucky Statutes, which says: "The fiscal court shall be a court of record, and shall hold two regular terms in each year, commencing on the first Tuesday in April and October, and continue until the business of the court is disposed of. But the county court of any county may by an order of record fix a different date for the commencement of said terms. Provided, That one of said terms shall be held in October."

No order has been made by the county court changing the dates of the meeting.

Several of the deserving poor people of our county who had been allowed a small sum for their support during former administrations, but who have been denied support during the present administration, in order to keep up high salaries, etc., were here expecting a small allowance, but they were turned away empty-handed, with no provision whatever against the approaching cold weather. Had I been a county officer I would have said: "Take my salary and divide it among these poor people, rather than let them starve and freeze."

The October term is the term to allow all claims for the general expenses of the county, but as the levy of 1905 has long since been exhausted and a large portion of the levy of 1906 has already been appropriated, we suppose this court did not want to go on record just before the election of allowing claims out of the levy of 1907, so they adjourned court till November 14th, to try to fool the people about the financial affairs of the county. But the people of Breathitt county are not as easily fooled as the gang thinks they are. They know that the fiscal affairs of our county are in a very bad condition, and they know that to get things right they must have a change, which they will bring about by defeating the Mid-nights ticket in November, by such a majority as will leave no doubt in the minds of any one that the people of Breathitt county are tired of lawlessness and misrule, and are for the right.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses have been issued during the past week:

Joseph Haddix and Miss Martha Centers, both of Noble; Edward Combs, Jr., and Miss Lettie Fugate, both of Noble; James White and Miss Sarah Couch, both of Roosevelt; Thomas Combs and Miss Mary Hall, both of Jackson; Breck Back and Mrs. Louise Carpenter, both of Robbins.

Day Bros. Co. will have their millinery opening today and tomorrow, October 6th and 7th. The display will be the finest ever seen in Jackson.

Henry D. Hays, while on his way here last Tuesday from Robbins, fell from a hand car and sustained very serious injuries, but he will recover.

Sunday service at the Baptist Church, the pastor, Rev. W. H. Setzer will preach at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Special meetings, under the direction of Evangelist W. A. Burns, of Lebanon Junction, will commence on Monday evening at 7 o'clock. Bible readings every afternoon at 2 o'clock, preaching at 7 o'clock.

A most enjoyable and pleasant day was spent Saturday, September 30th, by the teacher, patrons, pupils and a number of visitors at the school of Miss America Back, on Stray Branch. About 150 persons were present, to all of whom dinner was served. Rev. Setzer, pastor of the Baptist church here, was among those present and gave a very interesting address.

Millinery Opening.

You are respectfully invited to attend our opening SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14, where you will find one of the most complete lines of Fashionable Millinery ever displayed in Jackson. Our styles are the latest creations from Paris, and our prices are the lowest. Courteous attention paid to all. Your patronage respectfully solicited. Miss ABIE BAILEY, Corner Main and Broadway, IN THE RACE TO FINISH.

To the Voters of Breathitt County.

I understand that it has been reported that I was not going to make the race for County Clerk of Breathitt County. I deny the man that makes such a false report. I have not been out canvassing very much on account of having to attend to some very important cases in the Campton circuit court, but I will be in the saddle from now until the coming election is over. I will try and call to see each and every one of you between now and the election, but in case I am unable to get around do not forget me. I am for fair and honest dealings with every man. I stand squarely on the platform adopted by the people of Breathitt county at their convention held on September 9th, and am for the ticket nominated on that day. Ask your support, and I promise you faithful service. I remain, yours respectfully, S. H. HURST.

Entertainments.

H. Louis Racier will lecture at the court house on next Saturday and Monday nights, October 7th and 9th. Admission 25 cents. The entertainment consists of readings from James Whitcomb Riley, Shakespeare and others, and his quiet, strong heart-to-heart talk on "The Bright Side." Be there and let him help you forget some of your cares.

The season tickets for the course offered by the Jackson Lyceum, which is to be given in the college chapel, have been placed on sale, and the price, which will include reserved seats, has been placed at two dollars for the entire course. This will include admission to every number and the same seat will be reserved for each number. The first number of the course, which will be given on October 14th, will be Edward "Cyclone" Southers, who comes very highly recommended as a lecturer. It is to be hoped that a good crowd will be present to encourage the new venture, because by making this year's course a success, we are assured of better things to come, and Jackson ought to encourage anything like this, giving, as it does, some means of entertainment for the long winter evenings.

Owes Acquittal to Technicality.

A special from Winchester to the Lexington Herald, which appeared in that paper last Saturday, is as follows:

"From interviews with several of the jurors in the Hargis contempt case, in which the jury returned a verdict Thursday afternoon of 'not guilty,' it seems that Judge Hargis owes his acquittal to the second instruction of the court. That was an instruction as to an accomplice, and was as follows: 'A conviction of a defendant cannot be had upon the testimony of an accomplice unless corroborated by other evidence tending to connect the defendant with the commission of the offense, and the testimony of an accomplice cannot be considered as corroborating the testimony of another accomplice, and the corroboration is not sufficient if it merely shows the offense was committed and the circumstances thereof.'"

"It seems that the proof was most conclusive as to the guilt of Judge Hargis, paying or going into an arrangement with Mose Felner to compromise their differences, and putting up $1,500 in the hands of Felix Felner to be expended by him in defense of Mose's case provided Mose did not attend the Sept. term of court, but under the second instruction, there being no instruction defining an accomplice, the jury believed that Mose and Felix Felner, French, Callahan and Hargis were all accomplices, and there being no other witnesses to the transaction, they could not under the instruction convict on that testimony alone."

Stop with Hart Bros., at Reed hotel when in Lexington.

The Midnight Nominee.

The Democratic committee of Harrison county has asked E. K. Renaker to resign the nomination as State senator from that district because a young lady obtained a judgment against him for $3,500, for slander.

As far as court records show Renaker is an angel by the side of Jim Hargis, who claims to hate the Democratic nomination for county judge of this county. Jim Hargis stands indicted in the Fayette circuit court for the murder of James Cockrill, under which indictment he was held in the Lexington jail nearly two months without bail, during which time he was given a trial which resulted in a hung jury, after which he was allowed bail in the sum of $25,000, which is still against him.

A Clark county jury returned a verdict against him for $8,000 in favor of Mrs. J. B. Marenum for damages for the murder of her husband, which judgment still stands.

He stands at the bar of public opinion charged with other crimes unbecoming a nominee for any office.

Did the Democratic party nominate him?

Will the people elect him? That is for them to answer, but we think not.

Let him clear himself of these ugly charges before he asks the people to honor him. Can the people honor him without disgracing themselves?

Mrs. W. R. Bradshaw returned Tuesday from Winchester, where she has been under treatment of Dr. Browne for several weeks and is very much improved in health.

Eli Carpenter died at his home, near Taulbee, on September 27th, after several months illness of consumption. We have an obituary written by a friend, which we will publish next week.

The Recession of Niagara Falls.
Horseshoe fall has receded more than 250 feet within the memory of living men and is now traveling toward Lake Erie at the rate of fully 500 feet a century. At present the crest of this fall, as its name implies, has the general outline of a horseshoe, and its length is about 3,000 feet, but if the present rate of recession continues the length of the crest may reach 5,000 feet or more within the next half millennium. Now the Canadian end of the Horseshoe fall is a few rods upstream from the spot whence Table rock has fallen into the gorge, but the indications are that this end of the cataract will gradually retire toward the American side, leaving a bare cliff as the apex cuts its way upstream. -Alton D. Adams in Scientific American.

Generous.
"See here," said the client, "you've charged me so much for handling this suit that I'll have to put a mortgage on my farm. Can't you help me out a little?"
"I guess I can," replied the enterprising lawyer. "Tell you what I'll do. I'll draw up the mortgage at half rates." -Philadelphia Bulletin.

A Real Good Thing.
Mrs. Newbride - I got some hams here last month that my husband liked very much. Have you any more of the same kind? The Grocer - Yes'm; got about a dozen left from the same pig. Mrs. Newbride - Oh, that's nice! Give me six of them! -Cleveland Leader.

Frank Carelessness.

A New Yorker who, being rich, employs a man servant said to his valet one morning, "Hoskin!" "Sir," said the man, "You are getting careless, Hoskin." "Oh, sir, I hope not, sir." "You don't brush my clothes regularly any more." "Oh, sir, I assure you!" "There, Hoskin, that will do. I left a dollar in my white vest pocket yesterday morning and it is still there."

Twenty-two Acres.

Competent statisticians declare that twenty-two acres of land are necessary to sustain one man on fresh meat. The same space of land, if devoted to wheat culture would feed 42 people; if to oats, 88; potatoes, Indian corn and rice, 176, and if to the plantain, or banana, over 6,000 people.

Human Nature.

All boys think they will be richer than their fathers, and all girls think they can keep house better than their mothers. They continue to think this until they are fathers and mothers themselves.

Keys of bronze and iron have been found in Greece and Italy dating from at least the seventh century before Christ.

The Mission of the Children.
Only think, if there was never anything anywhere to be seen but growing-up men and women, how would long for the sight of a little child! Every infant comes into the world like a delegated prophet, the harbinger and herald of good things, whose office is to turn the fathers' hearts to the children and to draw the disobedient to the wisdom of the just. A child softens and purifies the heart, warms it and melts it by its gentle presence; it enriches the soul by new feelings and awakens within it what is favorable to virtue; it is a beam of light, a fountain of love, a teacher whose lessons few can resist. A child softens and purifies the heart, warms it and melts it by its gentle presence; it enriches the soul by new feelings and awakens within it what is favorable to virtue; it is a beam of light, a fountain of love, a teacher whose lessons few can resist.

Faith Not Necessary.
You may be just as skeptical and pessimistic as you please. Kodol will digest what you eat whether you eat or not. You can put your food in a bowl, pour a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure on it and it will digest it the same as it will in your stomach. It can't help but cure indigestion and dyspepsia. It is curing hundreds and thousands—some had faith and some didn't. Kodol will cure you if medicine can cure you, whether you have faith in it or not. Mrs. J. P. Bailey, Waugh, Va., says: "I am 81 years old. Several years I suffered extremely with indigestion and dyspepsia. My grandson, A. Bailey, Jr., a merchant at Allwood, Va., sent me a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. The world ought to know of the supreme benefits an aged sufferer has received from this great medicine. It entirely cured me and can eat all food." Sold by Jackson Drug Co.

A Full Stop.
A returned traveler who spent half of his holiday in a tour of Ireland brought back a sample of the happy-go-lucky "Joke" of the Irish "Joke" or "Joke". It was a small, round, white pill, but he suddenly realized that the pill he had brought back was running away. "Pull her up!" he shouted excitedly. "Hold tight, your honor," returned the "Joke" easily. "Pull her up!" again commanded the traveler, making a grab for the "Joke". "For your life don't touch the 'Joke'!" the "Joke" answered without tightening his grip. "Sure, they're as rotten as pears." The traveler made ready to jump, but the "Joke" laid a soothing hand on his shoulder. "Sit easy," he said reassuringly. "I'll turn her into the river at the bridge below here. Sure, that'll stop her."

Some Seasonable Advice.
It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is of wide known and so also the good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by the Jackson Drug Co.

Clouds of Dragon Flies in Patagonia.
"A number of years ago," said a California man, "I was traveling in that desolate part of South America known as Patagonia, a region I do not care to visit a second time. Among its curious phenomena I distinctly remember the clouds of dragon flies which are to be seen on the barren plains. These insects fly before the strong winds that blow from the interior and rush through the air as though in terror of the gas which they precede. Nearly all are large, but now and then one is seen of a brilliant scarlet color. You encounter a storm of these alien without any warning of their approach, the air a few feet above the ground being darkened by them, and men and horses in their path become absolutely covered with them. They are larger somewhat than the ordinary dragon fly, being about three inches in length."—Washington Post.

Last Hope Vanished.
When leading physicians said that W. M. Smith, of Pekin, Ill., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds kept him out of his grave. Sincere Admiration.

Chanted Death.
Kidney trouble often ends, fatally, but by choosing the right kind of medicine, F. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had kidney trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and keep them constantly on hand, since, as I find, they have no equal." Jackson Drug Co. guarantees them at 50¢.

A Hair Cut That Made War.
The cropping of the flowing locks and beard of Louis VII. of France brought on three centuries of bloodshed. The archbishop of Rome had decreed that the French king, as a penance, should shave and have his hair cut short. His appearance so startled and amused his spouse, Queen Eleanor, that she laughed aloud and began contemptuously to flirt with the Count of Anjou, afterward Henry II. of England. The shorn king stood the difference for a time, but at last sought evidence of his grievance to the pope and obtained a divorce. Eleanor then married Henry, and his herder the rich provinces of Poitou and Guienne passed into his hands. Louis made hot attacks on Normandy, and devastating wars, which continued for some 300 years, were the consequence of this cropping of a monarch's head.

A Pleasure to All.
No pill is as pleasant and positive as DeWitt's Little Early Risers. These famous little pills are so mild and effective that children, delicate ladies and weak people enjoy their cleansing effect while strong people say they are the best liver pill sold. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says: "For years I have used Little Early Risers Pills in my family. No better pill can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc., than these famous little pills." A Dead Beast of Vast Magnitude.
Olaus Magnus, bishop of Upsala, tells how a certain noble Englishman saw on Aug. 27, 1532, "a dead beast of vast magnitude" which had been cast up on the shore at Teignmouth. It was ninety feet long and twenty-five feet in thickness, and evidently a whale from the number of its blowholes, and the fact that instead of teeth "there grew to his palate above 1,000 plates of horn, hairy on one side." The noble Englishman noted that it had "three bellies like vast caves and thirty throats, whose cry were very great." On Aug. 28, 1774, an Englishman, with business instincts, saw two flights of birds collide with such force near Preston that 180 of them fell to earth. He picked them up and sold them in Preston market forthwith.

Mrs. Ascum—But why do you buy such expensive things when you know your husband can't afford them? Mrs. Wise—I just do it to please him. Mrs. Ascum—To please him? Mrs. Wise—Yes; there's nothing he likes better than a chance to have something to complain about to his own people and pose as a martyr.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Doctors Said He Would Not Live.
Peter Fry, Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Wykesburg and still getting worse the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend and I immediately sent my son to the store for it, and after taking three bottles I began to get better and continued to improve until I was entirely well." Jackson Drug Co.

Length of Wall Paper Rolls.
"Most persons have an idea that all pieces of wall paper are necessarily of one length," remarked a wall paper man. "Sometimes when I receive orders from a distance I wonder just what the patron is figuring on. He may get enough to paper two rooms, and he may get only half enough. Some figure overeconomically and some overgenerously. Our domestic papers run eight yards to the piece. Those from France and Germany measure nine yards, while the English make their rolls so lengthy that they contain twelve yards. Then, of course, there's the repeat. On some of the new papers with the smallest figures this is next to nothing, and on some others, notably a long tailed bird pattern, if a bit over the figure is required for each length it means a loss of five feet on every strip put on the wall."—Philadelphia Record.

Frightful Suffering Relieved.
Suffering frightfully from the virulent poisons of undigested food, C. G. Grayson, of Lulu, Miss., took Dr. King's New Life Pills "with the result," he writes, "that I was cured." All stomach and bowel disorders give way to their tonic, laxative properties. 25¢ at Jackson Drug Co. guaranteed.

Four Spiders to the Pound.
The lizard spider (Molus mygale) is the largest species of venomous spider known. He is of a bright yellow color with three red stripes on his back and a crescent of pure black on the abdomen. Full grown specimens of the lizard spider (called because their chief food is small lizards, frogs, etc.) measure four inches across the back and have legs ten inches long. Four full grown males collected by a British exploring expedition weighed one pound four ounces. This giant of the spider-family is a native of Ceylon.

A Judicious Inquiry.
A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult and if for a child they almost invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures there is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by Jackson Drug Co.

An Even Temper.
"And what is your ground for expecting to secure a divorce?" "My husband doesn't love me any more." "How do you know?" "He said he didn't love me when my temper was bad." "But that doesn't prove that he doesn't love you any more." "Yes, it does."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

For All Kinds of Piles.
To draw the fire out of a burn, heal a cut without leaving a scar, or to cure boils, sores, fester, eczema and all skin and scalp diseases use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A specific for blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles. Stops the pain instantly and cures permanently. Get the genuine. Sold by Jackson Drug Co.

The Biggest Inevitable.
"Borrowing money," remarked the man who comments on things, "is not a good plan." "Quite true," said Senator Bland. "I've always noticed that the man who lends money will sooner or later become sensitive to the touch."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Don't Be Imposed Upon.
Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. Jackson Drug Co.
